

The Statement of Bansomdejchaopraya Rajabhat University (BSRU)
“MORALITY BSRU” for profession administration with honesty, ethics, transparency, and prevention of from corruption and conflict of interest.

On behalf of the Bansomdejchaopraya Rajabhat University (BSRU), a state-run university located in Bangkok, Thailand; I would like to announce to all participated educational institutes domestically and internationally, public and private sectors, and stakeholders that the university has functioned in accordance with the Rajabhat University Act 2004 and the national strategy of Rajabhat University for local development, and fulfilled the vision of qualified university, as well as the organization values of ethics, morality and professional esteem of government officers and staff to work honestly and to do the anti-corruption in all internal units.

The university, herewith, would like to announce the statement of university and its core value of “MORLITY BSRU” as following practices based on the good governance:

1. Devoting and maintaining the organizational culture of anti-corruption,
2. Developing the management system announcement, and practical guidelines for monitoring, and preventing the corruption.
3. Administering with honesty, ethics, transparency, and fairness.
4. No committing or accepting the corruption and conflict of interest.
5. Keeping one’s principle in code of conduct in organization and profession.
6. Providing the ways for receiving a complaint/ opinion, explaining and using the information for improving and developing the organization.
7. Publicizing the news/information for work units from inside and outside to be informed thoroughly.
8. Providing every level of staff development for obtaining, knowledge, understanding, awareness, and value for preventing and suppressing the corruption.

Finally, I would like to certify the truthful expression as stated above, which are relied on the King of Thailand’s Philosophy and Ethics on sufficiency economy, pure perseverance, and resolution to support the local community in range of honesty, security and sustainability.

Stated on 1st March 2018

Linda Gainma

(Assistant Professor Dr. Linda Gainma)

The President

The Memorandum of Acknowledgment on

The Statement of Bansomdejchaopraya Rajabhat University (BSRU)
“MORALITY BSRU” for profession administration with honesty, ethics,
transparency, and prevention of from corruption and conflict of interest.

I have acknowledged the statement of Bansomdejchaopraya Rajabhat University. I am willing to collaborate hereby the practices and would inform all the units of the institution.

Institution :

Full Name :

Position :

Signed :

Date :

Address :

.....

.....

.....